Heywood Avenue School Spring Concert

On May 23, Heywood Avenue School held its Spring Concert, That's Entertainment. The program featured the instrumental, vocal and dance ensembles presenting selections from well recognized Broadway musicals, movies, as well as popular songs. The auditorium was decorated with Playbills to set the mood. The opening act was the school's Drum Line led by instrumental music teacher, Mrs. Erin-Leigh VanOrden, beating out several tunes including "Caffeine" and "Storm." The 6th Grade Dance Elective followed with "The Lioness Hunt" and "Cadillac Dreams." The Heywood Chorus, conducted by Mr. Jared McClain sang "When I Close My Eyes," "Fireworks" and "Maliswe."

Mr. Rawles' class, assisted by Mrs. VanOrden, gave their interpretation of the Broadway production of Stomp, by creating sounds from a variety of improvised instruments. The Chamber Orchestra followed with "How High the Moon," and "Little Shop of Horrors." The violin and recorder students played "Cantina Band" from Star Wars, the 7th Grade Dance Elective performed to "The Greatest" and the Heywood Dance Ensemble closed the program with "Can't Stop the Beat."

Oakwood Avenue Community School Spring Arts Festival

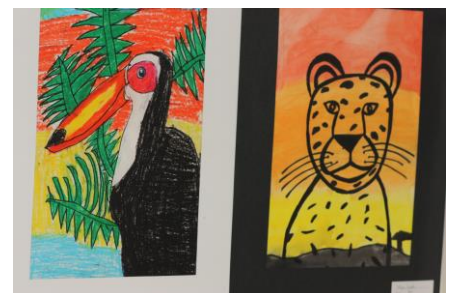

On May 24, Oakwood Avenue Community School (OACS) held its annual Spring Arts Festival. Families and friends were treated to a display themed "Wild Animals in Art," organized by art teacher, Ms. Helen Kwon. The eclectic presentation of a variety of animals was colorful and imaginative.

The concert portion of the arts festival featured the instrumental, vocal and drama groups, providing entertainment from talented students. Mrs. Annmarie Guenther, vocal and instrumental music teacher, led the Grades 4 – 7 Chorus in several tunes including, "We Will Rock You/We Are the Champions," "Best Day of My Life" and "I'm a Believer." There was a clarinet solo by Rebecca Thermidor, the Modern Band Grade 6 students, Erick Aguilar Pachas on guitar, Christian Guevara on keyboard, and Dodley Chery on vocals, performed "Free Falling." Students Unique Chadwick and Jamaal Ndiaye provided drum and bass accompaniment during the program.

Mr. Terrence Thornhill led his strings trio representing in a demonstration of their current lessons. Queen Mother Imakhu provided an energetic drum arrangement by Sonic Explorations.

The concert finale featured a drama presentation Cinderella: Prince vs. Robin Hood. Drama teacher, Ms. Britt Keshner, directed a stellar cast of actors in a fanciful production featuring Cinderella with Robin Hood and the Prince, vying for her hand. The production ended with a modern twist, as Cinderella preferred a career to a proposal.

Poetry Slam at Orange Preparatory Academy

On May 25, the Literacy Department proudly presented “Poetry Slam,” featuring 28 Orange Prep student presenters. The evening opened with an English Language Arts Showcase featuring display boards lining the corridors outside of the school’s cafeteria where the performances were held. The displays represented 8th and 9th grade lessons and examples of literacy work undertaken by students. Families were encouraged to view the work and were provided with a buffet dinner.

The students presented emotional and heartfelt prose on a variety of topics. From the introductory selection, “Life of a Gamer,” to the expressive, tearful sentiments in “Ode to an Immigrant Mother” and “Loss,” students were open, reflective, animated and aware of life’s ups and downs. Many of the recitations were deeply personal. Students performed such poems as “Life of a Christian,” “Ode to Me,” “Afraid to Live,” Ode to Basketball,” and the final performance “Farewell.”

Two students read “Pray for Manchester,” in response to the tragic bombing that occurred in Manchester, England.

The event was enthusiastically attended by students and their families with staff members were in full support. Principal Aretha Malloy offered greetings and the Emcees for the evening were Ms. Kristine Norat and Ms. Pollard. Student Kristina Vaca offered opening remarks.

Annual Bilingual/ESL Family Fair

Bilingual/ESL Program

program. At the fair, parents will:

- Gain an understanding of the benefits of the Bilingual/ESL Education.
- Learn ways to help their child pass the Benchmark, PARCC and ACCESS Tests.
- Obtain information about community resources.
- Review information about college opportunities.
- Help their child understand that parents and teachers are working as a team to help them succeed.

The fair will feature presentations in French, Haitian Creole, and Spanish and offer childcare for children from the ages 5 – 10. There will be games and activities for students, and parents will have a chance to win prizes. A Continental Breakfast, from 9:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m., will be served and snacks will be provided. See flyers below.

OHS/OPA Drama Showcase at Luna Stage in Orange

Donna Sinisgalli, Visual and Performing Arts supervisor proudly announced in an email to all staff that the drama students at Orange High School and Orange Preparatory Academy will be performing at Luna Stage, 555 Valley Road in West Orange, on Wednesday, June 7. The students will perform in this intimate setting, replicating the stage at Orange Prep which usually hosts the program, with seating for guests. This year the Grade 8 – 12 students will have a small theatre setting to perform their monologues, scene works and improvisations. See flyer below.

Scholars Academy Gifted and Talented Expo

On Thursday, June 8, Scholars Academy will host its Gifted and Talented Expo, showcasing students from the district's elementary and middle grade schools. The event will be hosted at the school, located at 268 Capuchin Way from 6:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Scholars' students will present their works and projects in the areas of Math, STEM, Science and English Language Arts.

Park Avenue Elementary School Teacher to Receive Spirit Award, Multicultural Party, Sewing Showcase and Library Grant Celebration

Park Avenue teacher, Mr. Benjamin Green will receive the METS Spirit Award from Syracuse University (SU) on June 4, 2017, when more than 1,000 SU alumni, families and friends gather together for an afternoon at Citi Field, as the New York Mets battle the Pittsburgh Pirates. He will be recognized for exemplifying SU's Orange Spirit in the NY Metropolitan area - - - congratulations Mr. Green!

On Thursday, June 8, Park Avenue School will host a multicultural celebration, from 4:00-6:00 p.m. This is a great opportunity for Park's families to celebrate and share their culture with the school.

Park Avenue's dance classes will perform and present a fashion show with traditional clothing. There will be Haitian, Jamaican, African and Spanish cuisine.

On Thursday, June 15, from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m., the Sewing Club, coordinated by Ms. Vandarra Robbins, will host a showcase displaying the sewing projects completed during the school year. The event will take place in the library and refreshments will be served.

Additionally, to celebrate the $5,000 library grant awarded to Park Avenue School by the Laura Bush Foundation, there will be a reception, from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 pm, on Friday, June 16 at the school.
